AIMEE CROWL-AHADI BOYS HOME

Hello Friends!

November has been an interesting month. Full of fun, exciting and often unexpected adventures. I got so busy that you almost didn't get an update.

This was the last month of school before the Christmas holiday. So at Rehema we spent the month finishing up our projects. In my younger classes we had been learning about different musical instruments and the sounds they make. We spent the month putting together a musical instrument book which the kids got to personalize in different ways. We then spent the last day playing games and had some last day of school cupcakes which were a big hit.

My acting class had been working on monologues all term which they had to perform in front of the class on the last day. They did very well. It was my last class with them as they are going to a different school next year. I was a bit sad. I will miss spending my Friday afternoons with them.

In my reading class the boys had to write a book report. They were not very excited about it but they did pretty well.

It has been a great term but by the end everyone was ready for a break. So now we are looking forward to a month to relax a bit and have some fun.

A good book should leave you... slightly exhausted at the end. You live several lives while reading it. ~William Styron

"Let's have a reading competition over the holiday" Mim said. The competition goes something like this: The boys read a book, they write a book report, I read it, if approved they get a prize and move on to the next book. He who reads the most books by the end of the holiday gets to go pick out a new pair of shoes. I thought it was a great idea. After the 5th book report or so I starting thinking "what have I gotten myself into"? Now, we all know that eventually most of the boys will get tired of reading and take themselves out of the competition. Nevertheless, I'm going to be reading quite a few book reports this holiday.

THANKSGIVING!

THERE WAS PLENTY OF TURKEY FOR THE MEAT EATERS, PLENTY OF VEGGIES FOR ME AND PLENTY OF FELLOWSHIP TO GO AROUND. WE HAD SOME SPECIAL GUESTS FOR THANKSGIVING THIS YEAR. DAVID UPCHURCH AND BOB WALLACE WERE IN FROM THE STATES VISITING. IT WAS NICE TO BE ABLE TO SPEND SOME TIME WITH THEM. FOR ME, IT WAS ESPECIALLY NICE TO BE ABLE TO SPEND THE HOLIDAY WITH MY PARENTS. LET ME ADD THAT MY TURKEY WAS A HIT!

AHADI LIFE

Christmas is around the corner. We keep hearing “subtle” hints of what kind of things the boys want. Let the shopping begin. Mohawks are the new thing on the compound. Even little Clapaton got a mohawk last week. He looks too cute. I’m quite amused by how much teenage boys are into their hair. Haha. They have to keep their hair clean cut during the school term so when school is out everyone starts to experiment.

As for me, I am still trying to get my work permit. I had to leave the country to renew my visa and had a bit of a hassle getting back in. Please continue to pray that the work permit comes through soon. I really don’t want to be leaving the country every 3 months. As always, thank you for your prayers and support. God bless. Cheers!
